READINGS

Old Testament Reading

Isaiah 42.1–9

New Revised Standard Version, Anglicised
Here is my servant, whom I uphold,
    my chosen, in whom my soul delights;
I have put my spirit upon him;
    he will bring forth justice to the nations.
He will not cry or lift up his voice,
    or make it heard in the street;
a bruised reed he will not break,
    and a dimly burning wick he will not quench;
    he will faithfully bring forth justice.
He will not grow faint or be crushed
    until he has established justice in the earth;
    and the coastlands wait for his teaching.
Thus says God, the Lord,
    who created the heavens and stretched them
    out,
    who spread out the earth and what comes
    from it,
    who gives breath to the people upon it
        and spirit to those who walk in it:
I am the Lord, I have called you in righteousness,
    I have taken you by the hand and kept you;
I have given you as a covenant to the people,
    a light to the nations,
    to open the eyes that are blind,

NEWS AND NOTES

SUNDAY 11TH JANUARY 2026

FIRST SUNDAY OF EPIPHANY, THE BAPTISM OF CHRIST

Dear friends,

This Sunday we turn our attention to the baptism of Christ, a moment that marks the beginning of Jesus' public ministry and reveals the heart of God's delight: "You are my Son, the Beloved." As we explore this together, we'll be reflecting on what it means for us to live as people who are named, claimed, and sent—those who step into the waters of grace and rise to walk in God's calling for our own lives.

This theme also connects beautifully with our midweek teaching, where we've been thinking about what it means to "test the spirit", the discernment of what is of God and what is not. The baptism story invites us to listen again for the true voice that speaks life, identity, and purpose over us. As we gather on Sunday, we'll be holding these threads together: the God who names us, the Spirit who leads us, and the call to follow Christ with clarity, courage, and joy.

Revd Pam Smith

to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon,
from the prison those who sit in darkness.
I am the Lord, that is my name;
my glory I give to no other,
nor my praise to idols.
See, the former things have come to pass,
and new things I now declare;
before they spring forth,
I tell you of them.

New Testament Reading

Acts 10.34–43

New Revised Standard Version, Anglicised

Then Peter began to speak to them: 'I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.'

Gospel Reading

Matthew 3.13–end

New Revised Standard Version, Anglicised

Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. John would have prevented him, saying, 'I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?' But Jesus answered him, 'Let it be so now; for it is proper for us in this way to fulfil all righteousness.' Then he consented. And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.'

WEEKLY CHURCH PRAYERS

Collect

Heavenly Father,
at the Jordan you revealed Jesus as your Son:
may we recognize him as our Lord and know ourselves to be your beloved children;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen.

Post Communion Prayer

Lord of all time and eternity,
you opened the heavens and revealed yourself
as Father
in the baptism of Jesus your beloved Son:
by the power of your Spirit
complete the heavenly work of our rebirth
through the waters of the new creation;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

COMMUNITY NOTES

Blackley Church Website

Have you had a chance to look at our website recently? All three Blackley churches share a dedicated online home at <https://blackleycofe.church>, and it's packed with resources to help you stay connected and involved.

On the site you'll find our up-to-date calendar, information about upcoming services, downloadable service sheets, rotas, study materials, prayer resources, and much more. It's the easiest way to keep track of what's happening across our churches throughout the week.

If you're part of the Worship Team, you can also access all our liturgy, music, and prayer resources through the Team Login button at the top of the page.

Why not take a few minutes this week to explore what's there? It's a simple way to stay rooted in the life of our churches and to make the most of the resources we're offering online.

Lent Course

A reminder about our discipleship journey for Lent. During Lent we'll be offering a course called Walking With Jesus: A Lenten

Journey to Easter. It's been created to help us deepen our faith as we make our way through these forty days and look ahead to the celebration of Easter. Each week there will be two chances to gather with others to explore the material, and the same resources will also be available on our website for anyone who prefers to engage at home.

Across the six weeks we'll reflect on these themes:

- Beginning the Journey and Turning Towards God,
- In the Wilderness,
- Learning to Trust,
- Cost and Surrender,
- Love Poured Out,
- Waiting and Hope.

Our in-person sessions will run on Thursday evenings at 7pm and Sunday afternoons at 5pm throughout Lent. Depending on numbers, we'll meet either in the Rectory or in St Andrew's Parish Room. Each gathering will last around an hour, with refreshments available beforehand.

Confirmation

If you're considering Confirmation, the Lent course offers a very helpful starting point. After Easter there will also be a four-week follow-on series focusing more closely on baptism promises, the Eucharist, and personal preparation for Confirmation. These sessions are designed with Confirmation candidates in mind, but they have also been valuable for long-standing Christians wanting to revisit and deepen their understanding of baptism and the Eucharist.

As always, everyone is warmly invited to take part in any of our discipleship gatherings.
